Vacant Definition

Vacant means that there is no provable use of utilities other than those necessary for reasonable security, no occupational tax certificate has been issued to such site for 180 days, no verifiable inventory or purchase has occurred during the time or verifiable business activity has occurred during the 180 days prior to the application for an occupational tax certificate